

TRANQUILITY

by Abraham Hunter

May 2016

This little whitetail deer fawn is taking a rest in a quiet summer meadow. His mother has left him alone to nap, and he is peacefully awaiting her return. This fawn reminds me of the scripture in Isaiah, "You will keep him in perfect peace, those who's mind is steadfast because they trust in you." Our heavenly father will come back for us very soon. Despite all of the craziness in the world today, we have the promise of perfect peace inside. I hope each time you see this fawn that he reminds you to be still and soak up the peace that surpasses all understanding.

SIZE	EDITION	EDITION SIZE	FRAMED	UNFRAMED
12x16	AP	25	$895	$745

www.infinityfineart.com