

MOTHER'S LOVE 2 - MOM'S LOOKOUT

EXCLUSIVE RELEASE

If you've spent a lot of time watching bears like I have, you've probably seen this funny animal behavior! When a cub sees an excellent opportunity, he'll hop off a tree on his momma's back and let her do the walking for a while!

This little cub is perched on moms back above the thick, high growth of a summer meadow. The rich tapestry of wildflowers might obscure moms vision, but her baby is her periscope! He can see for miles! It reminded me of what it felt like to be lifted up on parents shoulders when I was a kid, and how that made me feel so tall and invincible.
