

FIREFLY FARM

by Abraham Hunter

July 2019

EXCLUSIVE RELEASE

I did this painting recently of a perfect summer evening on the farm. A mist has begun to settle on the valley, and the fireflies are busy lighting up all over. One of my favorite parts about painting this was taking all the painstaking hours to add in each little leaf in the tree that has been silhouetted by the soft sunset. I hope this piece brings you peace and makes you feel at home.
