EXCLUSIVE RELEASE

Years ago, my family lived in South Carolina for a while. Even though I have spent most of my life in the Midwest and in Tennessee, I still feel at home when I visit the Carolina Lowcountry. Inspired by recent trips to Murrells Inlet in South Carolina, this Lowcountry scene showcases the dramatic sunsets in the region! I guess God just touches the sky and waters there.

This heron is enjoying fishing, but there's, even more, to spy in the wetland. You can see egrets, turtles, and even an alligator!
